

Bull's Island Recreation Area is a great place for outdoor activities. There is a unique pedestrian footbridge that crosses the Delaware River. There are also excellent areas for picnicking in the Park. These large trees block the warm afternoon sun from the picnic tables.